The Great Fight Between Maher and Fitzsim mons-Jim Williams-The National Game
-Aquatic-The Spring Meeting.

The familiar features of Jim Williams, the undisputed champion of Utah, appear in a recent issue of a Boston sporting tween Bri paper, accompanied by the following notice: James Williams, of Salt Lake City, Utah, vited. is the heavy-weight champion pugilist of Utah. He first became known at the east by his defeat of George Morrison in three WANTED-BY A COMPETENT BOOK. L. S. HILLS, rounds at Ocden, Utah. Morrison was trained and handled by Ls Blanche, the Marine, Morrison's discomfiture was complete, and Williams' supporters were heavy winners. The Marine himself then undertook the task in which his principal had Utah. failed. He proposed to himself the knocking of Williams out in six rounds at Salt Lake City, but was unable to accomplish it. A meeting is talked of between Willisms and Alec Greggains before one of the San Francisco clubs. Williams is backed once, by Col. Ed Kelley.

The base ball players are talking of organizing a strong team this season. There is no reason why this should not be done, especially in view of the proposed formation of the new Rocky Mountain league, and, with good management, the team ought to make money.

WANTED-BY A COMPETENT MAN AND his wife, without encumbrance, a situation in a private family; woman is a good cook, man is a good gardener and hostiler. Call at 30 West, First South street, room 8. ought to make money.

Interest in aquatics seems to be at a standstill, and it is doubtful if the old boat clubs will be revived this year.

The coming spring meeting of the Driv-ing club promises well. The officers of the organization report that much interest is taken by local and outside horsemen in went, and they expect a big string of

The sporting world is in a fever of excitoment over the two battles which come off at New Orleans a week from to-morrow night. Of course interest centers in the contest between Bob Fitzsimmons and Peter Mahor. "The True Irishman," and it is bound to be an exciting fight. Although Fitzsimmons is under the Irish lad in the matter of weight, he is at least Although Fitzsimmons is under the Irish had in the matter of weight, he is at least his equal in everything else, and is reported to be getting on fiesh at a rate that is bringing joy to the hearts of his backers. He is chopping down trees for exercise, and is a in the hands of Jimmy Carrol, Vanquelin and Robertson. His system of training is said to be the finest ever gone through by a pugilist, and he will need it to hold his own with Maher. Not much is heard of the lister, but Sullivan predicts that he will lick Fittsimmons inside of fifteen rounds.

The other fight will be between Danny Needbam and Tommy Kyan, the welter weights, and both are said to be in the pink of perfection. Several Sait Lakers will be at the ring side, among them Major Levey and Sam Haller.

Alfred De Oro, the champion pool player of America, and Charles Manning, the winner of the Philadelphia tournament, will cross cues in Philadelphia to-night before the Manufacuturers' club.

Andy Bowen, the southern light weight, is going to San Francisco in a couple of weeks, and expects to arrange a fight to a finish with one of the California light weights. He also announces his willingness to endeavor to stop Jimmy Murphy in the pounds.
